DISTRICT ATTORNEY DISMISSES CHARGES AGAINST JEFFREY SANCHEZ

The Fresno County District Attorney's Office has dismissed charges that were filed against Jeffrey Sanchez relating to an alleged December 19, 2014 sexual assault.

During the preparation of the case for trial, prosecutors determined that at this time, there was insufficient evidence to proceed to trial.

The California Rules of Professional Conduct require that "if, after the institution of criminal charges, the member in government service having responsibility for prosecuting the charges becomes aware that those charges are not supported by probable cause, the member shall promptly so advise the court in which the criminal matter is pending."

The charges were dismissed without prejudice, which means that they can be refiled at a later time if warranted.

No further comment will be made on this case.
