FRESNO COUNTY DISTRICT ATTORNEY'S OFFICE LAUNCHES NEW WEBSITE

The Fresno County District Attorney's Office is excited to announce the official launch of its newly redesigned website, providing the public with a more accessible and efficient way to engage with the office and access vital resources. This modern, user-friendly platform aims to improve communication and transparency with the residents of Fresno County.

The new website offers a simplified layout, making it easier for the public to find essential information about our office, services available to victims of crime, public safety initiatives, career opportunities and other important updates. With enhanced navigation, users can quickly access FAQs, contact details, and direct communication channels with the Fresno County District Attorney's Office.

"Our new website is an important tool in our commitment to transparency and fostering stronger connections with the people of Fresno County," said District Attorney Lisa Smittcamp. "By providing a more user-friendly and informative platform, we hope to improve access to justice and offer our community the resources they need to stay informed and engaged."

The redesigned website reflects the Fresno County District Attorney's commitment to serving the community with integrity and openness, ensuring that residents have the information they need to stay engaged with their local justice system.

The updated site is now live and can be accessed at: www.FresnoDA.org
